Dear Mr Halsall,

On behalf of WWF Russia please let me sincerely thank you for the brilliant presentation you performed at the workshop for WWF Russia corporate partners on November 14, 2008 in Moscow.

All participants have expressed high appreciation of your participation in the event. We can see already from the references of our guests that it was very important and interesting to them to see an example of sustainable development project from the point of view of the business but not only WWF. It has really helped us a lot to raise a new wave of interest to the possibility of working with us and we hope that it will bring results in the nearest future.

Let me once again express our gratitude to you and hope that your support to our activities may be also considered in future.

Yours truly,

Igor Chestin
